It would be quite hard to enumerate all the events which have been accomplished during the '52-'53 school year, but we must say that it has been a most successful and happy year for all of us. Let us be ever mindful of the responsibility which we must carry with us through our lives and the helpful and educational assistance which we have received from Presbyterian Junior College.

DEDICATION

Because of his personal interest in the students here at Presbyterian Junior College, the excellent training which he as faculty adviser has given to the members of THE SANDSPUR staff, and his friendliness toward everyone, we, the staff, dedicate the 1953 BAGPIPE to Mr. John H. Crabtree.

Outstanding Sophomores of the Year

Dolphus Allen

Dolphus Allen, serving as President of the Student Christian Association, has helped to lead the students here at Presbyterian Junior College toward a more Christian way of life. For his work, we elect "Doc" as one of the outstanding Sophomores of the year.

Robert Gibbs

Robert Gibbs, Editor of the SANDSPUR, has been one of the outstanding Sophomores of the '52-'53 school year. Under his leadership, the SANDSPUR has reported to the students here at Presbyterian Junior College all events of special interest.

Thomas Robertson

Thomas Robertson was elected by the student body to serve as President of the Student Council. He accepted the responsibility placed upon him and became a leader of the students on Presbyterian Junior College's campus.

Anthony Baker

GIBBS BAKER MYATT

Though the Sophomore class has been quite small this year, it has done an excellent job and will rank among the best classes ever to graduate from P. J. C. The job of leading students on the campus falls upon the shoulders of the Sophomores and the task has been done exceedingly well by these men. Our Sophomores have, indeed, been a credit to our school and we are quite proud of their progress. Anthony Baker was elected president of the class and he was assisted by Billy Myatt as vice-president and Herbert Gibbs as sec-treas. Sophomores — Hail and Farewell.

The Freshman class brought together a group of boys that have been outstanding in all of the work which they undertook. It is the largest class of freshmen that has attended P. J. C. in the last few years. Freshmen took leading roles in sports as well as in academic work. The officers elected were Charles Keels, president; William Lee, vice-president; and Robert McCain, secretary-treasurer.

Preparatory Department

The Elise Senior High School serves as the Preparatory Department of Presbyterian Junior College. It is the oldest division of the college, having originated in Hemp, N. C. It saw its greatest service in the early post-war period of World War II, but the enrollment is now increasing as young men are returning from Korea. Officers in the Preparatory Department are omitted because the students blend into the activities of the College as a whole.

BAGPIPE

We were governed by . . . the STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council Government of Presbyterian Junior College is the representative self-government organization of the student body based on the honor system. It is a representation of men elected by the student body to carry out the constitution of the college. The responsibility of this organization and its members is to pass judgment upon disciplinary offenders and to administer the punishment to these offenders. The Student Council officers who were elected at the beginning of this year were: Thomas Robertson, president; John Burris, 1st vice-president; Billy Myatt, 2nd vice-president; and Dolphus Allen, secretary-treasurer. Anthony Baker and Charles Keels were representatives from the Sophomore and Freshman classes, respectively.

In the past school year, the Student Council has tried to promote a sense of honor, duty, and self-control among the students. The officers have fulfilled their trust, keeping the respect of the faculty and the student body.

BAGPIPE

Seated: Baker, Robertson, Gibbs. Standing: Keels, Myatt, McInnis, McCall, Atkinson, Comer, Burris, Allen.

The Student Activity Board has shown itself to be one of the most outstanding organizations on the campus. The board controls, subject to administrative approval, the allotment of student activity funds for various organizations and student body functions. Special committees take charge of preparations for Homecoming, the Freshman-Sophomore banquet, and the dances that highlight the social season.

Every organization on the campus is represented on the Student Activity Board and has a vote in the conduct of its business. Officers elected this year are Thomas Robertson, chairman, and Anthony Baker, secretary-treasurer. The officers and committees of the Student Activity Board deserve special mention for the successful way in which they have conducted the many affairs under their supervision.

Dean and Mrs. James serve as host and hostess.

Standing: Allen. First row: Mr. Koesy, Bulla, Hutchins, Shaw. Second row: Goforth, Keels, Forbes, Whitlock, Johnson, Arnold.

The STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION led our worshiping . . .

The Student Christian Association is one of the most active organizations on the P. J. C. campus. The purpose of the S. C. A. is to provide the opportunity for spiritual growth through witness and service. The witness takes form in organizational and informal meetings and the service through various projects, such as the Hyun Ku Kim Fund and the supplying of the pulpit members and Sunday school teachers. The Hyun Ku Kim Fund is being raised through voluntary contributions from students and friends for the purpose of bringing a young Korean student to P. J. C. for a year's study.

DOLPHUS ALLEN
President

The Student Christian Association has provided the incentive for many young men to become interested in the Ministry, and has enlarged the vision of Christian service for many others. The fellowship of the Student Christian Association is extended not only to Ministerial students, but to all who are interested in spiritual growth.

The BAGPIPE Staff

EDWARD RICHARDSON
Editor

The staff of the BAGPIPE has been at work since early spring hoping to have the book on time for this year. It has been the express purpose of the staff to present a yearbook which will show credit to the school and revive fond memories for you, the student. The various members of the staff of the BAGPIPE have performed their duties with promptness and efficiency. An outstanding job has been done by Edward LaMotte, who has taken the difficult job of advertising. Anthony Baker has done an excellent job as business manager.

The editorial staff began early to collect information and to plan the dummy. This is a very difficult job because the setting up, typing, and picture arrangement have taken many hours of hard work and labor. Edward Richardson and Joseph Knox are editor and assistant editor respectively and these men have been the backbone of the staff this year. We of the BAGPIPE hope with all sincerity that this book will be a lasting memory for you and we hope that when in future years you turn through these pages, you will remember the wonderful experience, helpful education, and spiritual guidance you have received here at P. J. C.

The SANDSPUR, the Presbyterian Junior College newspaper, has been an outstanding credit to the members of the staff and also to those who have given their services as contributors to the paper. The SANDSPUR is an organization solely run by the members of the student body, with faculty assistance from Mr. John Crabtree and Mrs. Ann Rousseau. The main purpose of our college newspaper is to bring informative news and information to the students and alumni, with special emphasis on the school spirit and athletics.

The staff of The SANDSPUR has tried to make the paper an independent organization through the sale of advertisements. The staff has hoped to present a paper which would be enjoyed by both alumni and students.

The boys worked hard for their letters.

All students who have earned monograms in varsity sports are eligible for admission to the Block P Club. This organization serves as a social fraternal club for all those whose athletic prowess has earned for them the privilege of wearing the college letters. Earning a letter is quite difficult, and this club is composed of the best athletes to come out this year.

Seated: Carter, Atkinson, Williamson. Standing: Morrell, Allen, Johnson, Bellamy, Bethune, Mr. Dawson, Scarborough, Fountain, Dr. Hornaday, Briley.

The RADIO CLUB

wrote our scripts . . .

The Radio Club this year has made extensive progress in completing the remodeling job of the W. P. J. C. studios. In the past few years the Radio Club has campaigned for funds to make this job possible. The club has made a successful start in this operation and the studios are looking like those of the big networks.

In addition to this, the Radio Club has had the responsibility of planning and producing the P. J. C. radio program over radio station

W. E. W. O. in Laurinburg. Most of the programs have been presented as roundtable discussions and they have proved to be very successful.

This year's officers are: Robert Atkinson, president; George Carter, vice-president; John Burris, secretary; and Fred Fish, treasurer. Mr. Dawson is program director and Mr. Parker is technical adviser.

The Photography Club has been very active this year and has proved to everyone that it is a very worth-while organization. Mr. W. A. Parker, of the Physics Department, has lent valuable assistance to the work of the club which has proven to be both profitable and enjoyable. Mr. Parker in the regular Tuesday night meetings has discussed the most important stages of photography with the students. His lectures have been attended by all the photography-minded students. The club room is located in the basement of the administration building, where the dark room is also located. This well-equipped dark room has several new and expensive pieces of equipment and has attracted many students who have found a great deal of pleasure in taking, developing, and printing their own pictures.

Fred Fountain is the president of this organization and his ability as a photographer has been a great help in the interests and development of the club. Robert Atkinson was elected vice-president and Guido Morrell is secretary-treasurer.

The DEBATING CLUB

Under the supervision of Dr. C. L. Hornaday, several interesting debates were held by the members of the debating forum this year. Organizing early in the fall, the group elected Ray Mac Comer, president, Dolphus Allen, vice-president, and Eddie Lamotte, secretary. Among the topics which were debated were: "Resolved,

That Church Attendance Should Be Compulsory at Presbyterian Junior College" and "Resolved, That Best Education Results Are Obtained By Separate Colleges for Men and Women." Parliamentary Procedure was studied and much good was derived from these debates by all the participants.

Miss Dickson was aided by Miss Odom at the piano.

The Presbyterian Junior College Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Rebecca Dickson, has had a very successful year, presenting programs before the student body and neighboring churches. Robert Tolar was elected president, with Reese McInnis serving as vice-president. Regular practice meetings were held on Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Second semester added some new members to the club. These members were: Charles Scott, Lee Frierson, and Duncan Reid Shaw.

set an example . . .

The Ministerial Club has been composed of those members of the student body who plan to enter the ministry as a life's work. A person who is in attendance at the college and enrolled as a ministerial student is automatically a member of the ministerial club, if he so desires.

Usually, the Ministerial Club is organized and active when there is a sufficient number of eligible members in the student body to carry on the work of the club.

When active, this organization has its worthwhile, humanitarian services and projects — projects which can give the participants experience in their chosen field and, at the same time, be a benefit to mankind. Through the medium of fellowship, each member can know personally the others who compose the membership, thereby being acquainted with the other students on campus who are going to have the same vocation in later life.

The VETERANS CLUB organized . . .

At one time the largest and most active organization on the college campus, the Veterans Club this year is considerably smaller. It is composed of students now attending Presbyterian Junior College who have served in the Armed Forces. Mr. Dawson, being a veteran, was chosen as the faculty adviser for the organization.

The Veterans Club did not begin its regular meetings this year until the second semester because the number of veterans first semester was small.

Seated: Frierson, Lee, Carter, Scott. Standing: Langley, Crawford, McKinnon, Burluson, Gathings, Baldwin, Mr. Dawson.

First row: Fish, Burris, Bulla. Second row: Gibbs, Knox.

The Athletic Association is composed of all the students enrolled in the college. A committee was appointed to promote advertising of the ball games, entertainment of the visiting teams, and other phases of athletic activities. John Burris served as chairman, aided by Herbert Gibbs as secretary-treasurer. This organization has done much to aid Coach Harding and his teams.

PHI THETA KAPPA

The Zeta Upsilon chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, national Junior College scholastic fraternity, was established at P. J. C. in 1949. To become a member, a student must have an average of 87 on a total of not less than fifteen academic hours, and must be able to meet the character and leadership requirements of the fraternity. Members are Edward Richardson and Thomas Robertson. Mr. Ferrene is the faculty adviser.

The VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT protected our interests . . .

The Volunteer Fire Department is a very active organization on the campus. It was organized principally to rid our campus of fire hazards and to fight fires on the campus; however, it answers all fire calls with the Maxton Fire Department.

Aiding to put out several fires, its members have proved themselves capable of fighting fires in any situation.

The Volunteer Fire Department has added fire extinguishers to all floors of the administration building and dormitory, and has placed ash receivers at various places throughout the buildings. They have also succeeded in making the students "Fire-Conscious."

These men should be commended for the establishment of a much safer and organized department. The department is led by its chief, Cliff McLeod, and its adviser, Mr. Rockwell Journey.

Coach John Harding and Assistant Coach Sheldon Koesy.

On September 8, 1952, the football team of Presbyterian Junior College began heavy workouts under the direction of head coach John A. Harding and his capable assistant, Sheldon F. Koesy. Several returning lettermen, combined with many outstanding candidates from the freshman class, were on the field for the first day of practice. Johnny Burris, Tony Baker, Jimmy McCall, Billy Myatt, Tommy Robertson, Malcolm Bethune, and Jimmy McKoy were the returning lettermen.

After several weeks of strenuous practice, the P. J. C. eleven journeyed to Murfreesboro where they met the powerful Chowan team. The home team outclassed the visitors in weight, ability, and depth. They jumped to an early lead which they were never to relinquish. The desperate efforts of the Scotties to stop the Braves were in vain as the home team piled up touchdown after touchdown. The lone touchdown scored by the P. J. C. eleven was the result of a long pass from VanderMeer to end McKoy. The game ended with P. J. C. on the short end of a 53-6 score.

The next game was played on the afternoon of October 18, 1952, on the P. J. C. home field. The opponents were the rugged boys from Hargrave Military Academy at Chatham, Virginia. The Scotties were looking forward to an upset, but the same factors retarded them once again. They were still lacking depth and experience.

The P. J. C. team played one of the best games of the season, but they could not overcome an early lead gained by the visitors. When the final whistle had blown and the dust had settled, the boys from Hargrave were walking off the field with a 26-0 victory.

The Scotties were still looking forward to their first victory when they invaded the campus of Edwards Military Institution at Salemburg on October 25, 1952. Their efforts were again to no avail because they were soundly trounced by the great E. M. I. team. The home team dominated the play throughout most of the game and scored at will. The Scotties finally pushed across a touchdown late in the game. The E. M. I. boys won a great victory by the score of 73-6.

The Scotties had revenge in their heart when they played host to the once victorious Chowan team on Homecoming Day. A large crowd was at the local park in the hope that the home team would come through with a win to celebrate the occasion.

The P. J. C. eleven must have been inspired by the host of girls from nearby Flora MacDonald College who were visiting the campus. They took the opening kickoff and began their march down the field which brought them within the opponents' ten yard line. Here they were stopped and the Braves took possession of the ball. Chowan finally broke through for a score late in the second period. The Scotties were trying desperately to get back into the game when the second quarter ended. Chowan came back and scored twice in the third period. This just about wrapped up the scoring of the game. The game and the season terminated with the Chowan Braves scoring their second victory of the season over the Scotties by the score of 19-0.

Hall racks up two points against Chowan.

After an uneventful season in football, the "Scotties" plunged into a season of hard practice for the coming basketball season. Coach Harding started practicing early in the season in hopes of getting a good start, with a promising young squad. Practice was very hard, and the team showed superior quality.

Kneeling: Myles, Baker, Blue, Morgan, Britt, Parker, Blue. Standing: McCall, Mgr.; Comer, Mgr.; McCain, Lee, Holshouser, Myatt, Bruton, Keels, Coach Harding.

The returning lettermen this year were: Bud Blue, Tony Baker, and Billy Myatt. Promising new members which showed a lot of ability at the pre-season practice training were: Charlie Keels, Bill Britt, Bill Lee, Gilbert Morgan, and Bob Bruton. Several non-conference games were played before Christmas to give valuable experience to the new members and to round off the rough edges before settling down to a full-scheduled season.

The P. J. C. baseball prospective looked good as the pre-season practice got under way on March 2. Returning lettermen who greatly aided in building the new team were: Mac Comer, Dave Chittum, and Tommy Robertson. Among the new members who showed qualities of being good baseball material were: Watt Moore, Bill McLaurin, Bill Britt, Charles Keels, and several others.

The team opened its season by winning four consecutive non-conference games. As the season progressed, the Scotties showed ability unexcelled by previous teams by winning the majority of their games.

Miss McGuire has the crown presented to her by Dr. LaMotte.

Each year, the SANDSPUR sponsors a beauty contest to select the young lady who is to reign over Homecoming. This year, Miss Betty McGuire, a freshman at Flora MacDonald College, was chosen by the student body as Homecoming Queen for '52-'53. She was sponsored by John Burris.

In closing —

I would like to take this time to recognize and show appreciation to those persons who have worked hard to produce the 1953 BAGPIPE.

To the members of the BAGPIPE staff for their splendid cooperation in making the 1953 BAGPIPE more than a standard. Thanks go especially to Joe Knox, Tony Baker, and Eddie LaMotte, without whose help it would have been impossible to produce the 1953 BAGPIPE.

To Mr. Weston, whose personal help and advice as faculty adviser gave us a better understanding of yearbook procedure.

To Mr. Bill Bullis for his excellent job as photographer.

To Dean James for his cooperation in letting the members of the staff out of classes to work on the yearbook.

To our advertisers for their cooperation and support of this book by their contributions.

And to all others who have given unsparingly of their time and effort in producing this, the 1953 BAGPIPE.
